JUSTICE AND RESILIENCE

A SERIES OF THREE INTER-CONNECTED WEBINARS EXPLORING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN JUSTICE AND RESILIENCE IN THE CONTEXT OF THE CORONAVIRUS

TIME: 10:00 (ET) USA/New York | 15:00 UK | 16:00 Africa/Johannesburg

No charge to Micah members
CONTENT OF THE THREE WEBINARS

1. The Social Science of Justice and Resilience
What is the evidence that justice is a basic human motive? What are the implications of this for individuals and for communities?

2. Justice and Resilience
How are justice and resilience connected? What if justice is not only something that is present in a resilient community, but actually contributes to resilient? Is there evidence for a justice and resilience connection?

3. The Implications for a Justice and Resilience Connection
How might we apply the connection between justice and resilience to relief and development? To civil conflict? To immigration?

DAVID BOAN

David Boan is a psychologist with particular interest and experience in trauma, the church and community resilience. He is the author of more than 40 professional publications and several books on disasters, trauma, resilience and the church. Find out more about David Boan here.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Sign up by emailing events@micahglobal.org

Whilst participating in all three sessions is advisable, all sessions will be recorded for later viewing if you are not able to make it for any reason.

Micah Global Online Webinars | Justice & Resilience | March, & April 2020